Adventure and Health: Conversations with Stacy Bare at Under Canvas Zion

Trip Overview (Two Nights)
Adventure and health go hand in hand with our Under Canvas vision. Join us at our Zion location with special guest and Adventurer of the Year 2014 by National Geographic, Stacy Bare. Stacy is a war veteran who has a great passion for extreme sports including skiing, climbing, mountaineering and surfing. Stacy is a former US Army Captain who set the narrative for the film ‘Adventure Not War’. This film is an initiative founded by Stacy that brings veterans back to the places they served and aims to promote world peace and understanding through adventure. Join Stacy and several other like-minded adrenaline seekers in this epic journey!

Day One (Dinner Included)
Arrive at our Under Canvas Zion location and check into your Deluxe or Safari Tent. The Deluxe comes complete a King Size Bed, a private bathroom with shower, sink, flushing toilet and a raised wood floor stretching out to a private patio with deck lounge chairs. The Safari comes with a King Size Bed or two Twin Size Beds with access to a very nice shared restroom close by. Sunset yoga is available for anyone who would like to attend. Meet and greet with Stacy before a delicious dinner. Join Stacy and the crew around the campfire for more conversation post dinner.

Day Two (Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner Included)
Wake up to the desert sunshine and enjoy a nice breakfast at our on-site restaurant, Embers. Grab a lunch, head out, and enjoy a privately guided canyoneering trip with local professionals. Hike, climb, squeeze, rappel, support, laugh, listen and be in a canyon created by nature. Head back to camp to wind down and enjoy this time for yourself. Dinner will be available earlier in the evening. After dinner, ‘Adventure Not War’ will be aired on the big screen at camp. Fireside chat and s’mores around the campfire will bring this day to a fulfilling close.

Day Three (Breakfast Included)
Take part in a sunrise yoga session and reflect on the experiences from the past few days. Breakfast at camp and then it is time to head home, always treasuring the memories made during this special retreat.
