What to Bring:	Bathing suit; long sleeve fleece; water shoes or sandals with ankle straps; sunscreen; sunglasses with strap; dry clothes for after; guide gratuity
Timing:	6 hours - 9:45 AM - 3:45 PM No tours on Tuesdays or Thursdays
Restrictions:	Minimum age: 8 years (water-level dependent) Weight minimum: 50 pounds
Tour Location:	Gallatin River
Meeting Point:	Gallatin Gateway, MT - 71 miles / 1 hour 20 minutes from Under Canvas

Begin the day by floating the narrow, winding upper Gallatin as it flows through mountain meadows and pine forests. Stop for a delicious river-side lunch; then the lower section takes you through the wildest water on the Gallatin! You'll begin with smaller rapids that progress in size until you are dropped into the Mad Mile, featuring the longest stretch of whitewater in the region and the legendary House Rock Rapid!

The Gallatin River Canyon is the perfect setting for getting your whitewater fix and relaxing in nature as a group. Your guide will share stories and information about the area with the group as you make your way down river. Keep your eyes open for wildlife sightings along the way. A keen observer might spot bald eagles, marmots, or even a moose! The scenery, featured in the movie "A River Runs Through It," is one of the highlights of Montana.

Group Whitewater Rafting - More Challenging (3 hours)

Cost:	$105 per adult (13+) $95 per youth (6-12)
