Private Guided Hiking - Seasonal Summit (10 hours)

Yosemite's hiking experience transforms with the seasons, offering diverse landscapes and challenges throughout the year. In the spring, the trails come alive with rushing waterfalls and vibrant wildflowers, making it an ideal time for high-elevation hikes with stunning water views. As summer approaches, the parks' higher-altitude hikes become more accessible, offering expansive vistas of the valley and surrounding peaks. Fall brings cooler temperatures and crisp air, perfect for summit hikes with clear skies and quieter trails, as the summer crowds thin out. By late fall, alpine trails are more rugged, with snow-capped peaks and fewer visitors, offering solitude and awe-inspiring winter landscapes.
